Punjab National Bank launches Online Life Certificate submission facility

In a major initiative to simplify and extend convenience to its pensioners, Punjab National Bank has come up with the facility of online Life Certificate submission for Central/State Govt. pensioners. The easy-to-use web-based platform will enable pensioners to submit their Life Certificate through Video based Customer Identification Process (V-CIP). This paperless submission process has been designed to involve video-based identification along with other simple pre-requisites such as a computer or a mobile/tab equipped with a camera, with GPS and microphone facility. Pensioner's mobile number and Aadhaar number should be linked with bank account number. The pensioner will be able to submit their 'Life Certificate' via a video call through the bank's corporate website www.pnbindia.in under "Online Services" section.
