NeSL IU, DDE and e-BG Services Intermittent Issues

Kind Attention: IU Users

We have detected intermittent issues in our system that may be impacting NeSL IU data submission, DDE and e-BG services. Our team is actively addressing the concern to provide you with a seamless experience.

An intimation will be sent as soon as the issue has been resolved, we apologize for any inconvenience and appreciate your patience.

Your feedback is important to us, and we welcome any suggestions to improve our services on a continuous basis. Please write to us at suggestions@nesl.co.in with your suggestions, if any
